Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

It was a dark night. The moon was hidden by clouds and there was no light in the streets. It was late and nearly everyone was in the bed. One man, however, was not asleep. The man was a thief who dressed in dark clothes. He walked quietly down the streets and tried each door to see if it could open. All the doors in the first street were locked. He passed near a big mosque and turned into the next street, fortunately in this street he found one door which was not locked.

The thief continuously pushed the door open and stepped into the house. Snoring from several parts of the house indicated that the people in the house were asleep. He waited for a few minutes until he could see clearly in the dark. Then, he saw a bed beside the wall. A man was sleeping in it. Over the table, there was a shelf with a little metal box on it. Probably there was some money in that box.

The thief moved quietly around the room. He took a shirt from a stool and a pair of shoes from the floor beside the stool. Under the window, there was another table but this had only a piece of paper on it. He put all the stuff in his bag.

The bag with the stolen goods was now quite full. He heard the sound of somebody turning over in the bed in the next room. He picked up his bag and left as quietly as he could. Once more, he went to the quiet street without being seen.

Later, he reached home and put the radio he stole and the metal box under his own bed. He hid the bag in the big box in which he kept the stolen clothes. He padlocked the box and put the key under his pillow. Then, he went to sleep.
