Once upon a time there was a king called Aluta the King in Kazurura village. He lived in a castle with his daughter, as his wife had been killed by robbers. The castle was well built, surrounded by a big thick forest. One day the princess walked out of the castle to pick flowers. Suddenly, the robbers came from a nearby village and kidnapped her. When the King heard the news he was frustrated. He remembered what had happened to his wife many years ago.

Therefore, he announced and promised that, anyone who would bring back the princess alive would marry her. Brave men were happy to hear that. Unfortunately, no one returned alive. One young man called Maguvu heard what had happened to the brave men. He went to the nearby village and pretended to be the enemy of the king. After some time, he gained the trust with the robbers. One evening, he went where they had kept the princess and rescued her. The king was very happy and fulfilled his promise.
