Once upon a time in a forest, there lived a Hare and a Tortoise. The Hare could run very fast. So, it was very proud of its speed. One day, the Hare saw the Tortoise walking very slowly. The Hare laughed at the Tortoise and said, "You are such a slow creature!" "My dear friend, you are so proud of your speed. Let us have a race to see who is faster," the Tortoise said. So, one morning, the Hare and the Tortoise had a race. The Hare ran very fast and very far. After a while, the Hare turned back to see where the Tortoise was. The Tortoise was running very slowly and it was far behind the Hare. "The Tortoise will take a very long time to come near me," the Hare thought.

The Hare started feeling bored. He thought to sleep for a short while. In the meantime, he began to eat the grass around. After eating, he went to sleep under a big tree. The Tortoise slowly but steadily passed the Hare. The Hare suddenly woke up and saw the Tortoise just crossing the finishing line. The Hare started running very fast. But it was too late. The Tortoise already won the race. The Hare was very angry and disappointed to find his competitor already there as a winner.
