6. Read the passage then answer the questions in the space provided after each items (a)-(d).

Tanzania is among the countries which have good relations with other African nations. Those relations resulted from the decision of Tanzania in assisting the liberation of other African nations which were ruled by the colonialists. Some of the nations assisted in the liberation struggle were Mozambique, Angola and South Africa. Also, Tanzania has participated in solving conflicts in other nations such as Rwanda, Burundi and Kenya. Conflicts in a country cause citizens of such countries to flee to neighbouring countries and become refugees. Tanzania has been hosting refugees from countries with civil wars such as Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda, Burundi, Somalia and Sudan. These refugees have been hosted in different camps located in Kigoma, Kagera and Katavi regions. In the African Continent, Tanzania is a good example in the way it relates with other nations.

Pupil's Assessment Number:.....

- (a) Mention two countries that were helped by Tanzania in getting their independence.
(i) Mozambique
(ii) Angola
- (b) From the passage you have read, mention two countries that have conflicts.
(i) Rwanda
(ii) Burundi
- (c) What is the name given to people who run away from their country because of the conflicts?
Refugees
- (d) Why does Tanzania have a good relationship with other African countries?
Because Tanzania assisted other African nations in their liberation struggles and also participates in solving conflicts in other countries, showing solidarity and support.
